Tape No. 83-84, intv by Hal Verb of Harold Weisberg, who says significance of Shaw case is that for the first time the Warren Report was tested in a court of law and was destroyed, and that Garrison's suit for release of autopsy documents, etc., established that the government account was false.